

ROOSEVELT STOPS RECEPTION

IT IS NOT ONLY EN-RAGED RELIGIOUS BITTERNESS.

perle Had Ever Agreed to Address any Clerical Organization in Rome Statements by Mr. Tippet of Methodist Mission Cause Great Disquiet.

Special Cable Despatches to THE SUN.
Rome, April 5.—This morning the walls of Rome were posted with the following bulletin:

"Public intolerance has found a worthy expression in the Protestant conscience of Theodore Roosevelt, who rejected the invitation imposed as to a reception at the Vatican. A solemn warning to those who cherish the delusion that the spirit of the papacy has changed."

and Roosevelt decided to-day to call off the reception which had been planned for tomorrow at the American Embassy.
It is believed that this determination was brought about by a statement issued yesterday by the Rev. Bertram M. Tippet, pastor of the American Methodist Church at Rome. Col. Roosevelt issued this statement to-day:

"I had made no arrangements to speak at any church or clerical organization in Rome. I have received a number of gentlemen of all religious faiths who have called at my rooms or at the American Embassy. Under the circumstances I have decided that it is especially important to hold the reception which he intended to hold on Wednesday afternoon."

"As regards all efforts by whomsoever made to bring about and inflame religious animosities because of what has occurred in connection with the Vatican and myself, I can do no more than refer to the emphatic statements contained in my open letter to Dr. Lyman Abbott, already published. All that I desire to do is to reiterate with my whole power."

The Rev. Dr. Tippet issued the following additional statement to-day through the evening newspapers:

"More especially in the last two or three years the losses to the Roman Church in Italy have been appalling to the authorities. Italians by the thousands have discarded the church of their fathers.
Utterly unable to check the growth of the anti-clerical sentiment, the Vatican has become desperate, until in the present it has thrown caution and sanity to the winds and made itself ridiculous in the eyes of all intelligent Italians as well as to the world."

"Nearly half a century ago Bismarck entered Italy with an open Bible, giving personal Christian education for the masses. To-day the Vatican with its own hands has set the seal of success upon our work. It has published broadcast to the world that it asked Col. Roosevelt to give a pledge that he would not recognize the Methodists here in Rome. Col.
Roosevelt refused to give this assurance.
We ask no greater vindication for our work than this testimonial from the Vatican."

"To be thus anathematized by the Roman hierarchy is to be named the friend of the Roman people, and it is to be noted that Col. Roosevelt does not O. K. their accusations against the Methodists of Rome."

BERTRAM M. TIPPET.
Col. Roosevelt's anger with the Methodists after seeing the Rev. Dr. Tippet's communication was greater perhaps than with the Vatican. This appears not only in the statement which he gave out and which is quoted above but was visible in his expression, audible in his voice and expressed in his action when he canceled the reception at the embassy, which it was thought was to be general for Americans in Rome, but which was really intended to be especially for the members of the Methodist mission.

At the Methodist establishment it is no exaggeration to say that something like a panic prevailed. Mr. Tippet's statements were thrown over and probably Mr. Tippet will follow. Mr. Spencer, head of the college, and Mr. Clark, superintendent of the whole work of the Methodist missions in Italy, both of them superior to Mr. Tippet, who is a minister of the Methodist church, emphatically point out that Mr. Tippet has been in Rome only about three months. Mr.
Clark said: "Neither with my knowledge nor consent has Mr. Tippet said anything.
I do not repudiate his statement, for I had nothing to do with it. It is his and his alone."

Mr. Clark was extremely nervous.
Mr. Tippet's second statement, which appeared in the afternoon papers, seems to have taken Mr. Clark completely aback.
During the afternoon Ambassador Lesau-pelle telephoned for Mr. Clark to come to the embassy. Later in the evening, before going to dine at the British Embassy, Mr. Lesaupele sent for him again. Mr.
Clark on his return refused to discuss what had happened on his two visits.
He said:

"The matter is so delicate that I will say nothing. Mr. Roosevelt has made a bold stand for freedom of action which I am anxious to support. I have not seen Mr. Roosevelt since I was introduced to him after the embassy lunch yesterday.
I am at his disposal whenever he wants to see me. At present I do not contemplate any statement."

Nothing further could be drawn from Mr. Clark who seems to be badly frightened.
The correspondent of THE SUN saw today Mr. Spencer, director of the Methodist mission, who was formerly professor of theology at the University of Denver, and described to him the charges made by Ambassador Lesaupele against the Methodists. The interview with THE SUN showed, however, which the Cardinal expressed, that he has given personally and should be inaccuracies in the reports of his utterances.
He was speaking without a tinge of contempt.

It was noted in the Mississippi Valley and in the States of Texas.
Freezing temperatures extended from the Dakotas and Minnesota southwest into New Mexico and northern Texas, and it was believed in Utah and Nevada.
In this city the day was fair and warmer, wind, light southerly to southeast, average humidity, 70 per cent; barometer, corrected to read to sea level, at 3 P. M., 30.00; at 2 P. M., 29.92.
The temperature yesterday, as recorded by the

For western New York, showers to day and tonight, cooler in the interior, fair to morning, moderate to severe southerly to west wind.
For New England, increasing cloudiness to day, showers at night or to-morrow, cooler to morning, moderate to brisk south to southwest wind.
For New Jersey, Delaware, eastern Pennsylvania, Maryland and the District of Columbia, showers and cooler to day; fair to morning, moderate to brisk southerly to west wind.

For western New York and western Pennsylvania, showers and cooler to day; fair to morning, brisk southerly to southwest wind, becoming variable to-morrow.

Proceeding with his refutation of the charges he was harboring apostates.

immoral priests, who had been expelled from the Church, Prof. Spencer said:
"I constantly receive letters from members of the Roman Catholic priesthood asking help and encouragement to leave that Church. My invincible answer is,
'You have my sympathy, but I can do nothing for you,' and that has closed the case. We do not seek to proselytize.
Two-thirds of the boys in the college are Catholics. Some become Methodists, but in not one case have I known it until it had been done."

"None of our pupils participated in the anti-clerical demonstrations with my knowledge or consent. This fight did not begin over Mr. Fairbanks. What caused the hostility of the Vatican is our success in school work. We are getting more pupils all the time. Parents send us their children because they want them to have a practical American education, fitting them for the work of progress."

"Moreover, the social class of our pupils is ascending. It is this getting the boys into our school that has caused the hostility. Every boy in the school pays the regulation fees, day boys and boarders alike. As regards the general charges against the institution I challenge any Romanist or other to come here at any moment, day or night, to see any room or accounts, and to see any document or person, everything, everybody in the whole building. Will the Romanists do the same?"

An American Roman Catholic priest called on Col. Roosevelt this afternoon and expressed complete sympathy with his conduct in the Vatican incident. He said that most of his fellow American priests in Rome approved and shared his ideas and praised his attitude.

The clerical newspapers still abstain from comment on the audience incident, which shows the great importance the Vatican attaches to it. The Osservatore Romano quotes the Correspondence Romana to the effect that the Vatican did not exact any declaration or promise from Mr. Roosevelt, but forewarned him, as the Fairbanks incident was of such recent date that he might not have been aware of it.

The King has told several persons that he is greatly attracted by Roosevelt's vivid personality and impetuous vitality.
He seems to enjoy everything, even small jokes, in quite a boyish manner.

Nevertheless, despite the royal favor there are expressions in many quarters that Roosevelt's visit has already produced enough sensations and his departure will be viewed with relief.

BERLIN, April 5.—The newspapers here give much space to the Roosevelt incident, and especially the Roman Catholic press. The principal Berlin Roman Catholic newspapers bitterly assailed Roosevelt, and brand his correspondence with the Vatican as "irrelevant, insolent, tactless in the highest degree, and lacking in respect to the head of a great Church."

It is evident that the Kaiser means to pay Col. Roosevelt and his family the utmost attention and to make their visit a great event. The programme includes a grand performance at the opera and excursions to historical castles in the neighborhood of Berlin.

ROOSEVELT SIGHTSEEING.

Less Auting With King Victor—Family Party Later Forum Inspires Him

Special Cable Despatches to THE SUN.
Rome, April 5.—King Victor Emmanuel called upon Col. Roosevelt at the Beausite this morning. The King and the Colonel talked for some time in an informal manner and then they entered the royal motor car and drove to the barracks of the Cuirassiers of the Guard, where a regiment executed a series of parade maneuvers which delighted the Colonel, who declared that he had never seen a more magnificent display of men.

The King wore the uniform of a General and was attended by an aide, who with three other members of the royal household followed the royal automobile in which the King and the Colonel were riding. The escort consisted of some twenty bicycle policemen.

There was no demonstration in the streets, but the King was recognized and saluted by passersby. There was no formal review at the barracks in the evening of the work. The Italian officers gave an exhibition of their well known skill in riding for the edification of the Colonel.

The great monument to Victor Emmanuel II. was next visited. It has been in process of construction for twenty years.
It is to cost $6,000,000 lire, or about $18,- 000,000, and is not yet finished. The King

The weather.
April 4.—The storm center in the upper Mississippi Valley on Monday became more intense and its center dropped to the south of the Missouri River. Rain was falling in the central valley, and the upper lake regions and the winds were high in the lower Missouri and middle Mississippi valleys.

It was warmer in practically all sections east of the Mississippi River and in the extreme Northwest.

It was colder in the Mississippi Valley and from the Dakotas to Texas.
Freezing temperatures extended from the Dakotas and Minnesota southwest into New Mexico and northern Texas, and it was believed in Utah and Nevada.

In this city the day was fair and warmer, wind,
light southerly to southeast, average humidity, 70 per cent; barometer, corrected to read to sea
level, at 3 P. M., 30.00; at 2 P. M., 29.92.

becoming variable to-morrow.

tain the Senator has no intention of going abroad on such a mission whether summoned or not.

WELCOMERS OF ROOSEVELT.

Committee of 25 on Plan and Scope of the Outburst.

The committee appointed by Mayor Gaynor to arrange for the reception of Theodore Roosevelt on his return to this country met yesterday in the City Hall.
Cornelius Vanderbilt presided. Capt.
Arthur F. Cosby was elected secretary and J. Edward Swanstrom treasurer.
Mr. Vanderbilt invited suggestions as to the form the reception should take, but the only one forthcoming was from a member of the Early Rising Riding Club, who asked that the members of the club should be permitted to take part in the parade, if it should be decided to have a parade.

As it was apparent that the committee was not prepared to discuss plans it was decided to leave this work to an executive body of twenty-five, whom Mr. Vanderbilt will select before the end of the week.
Within a day or two headquarters will be opened. Any communication with Col.
Roosevelt is left to the executive committee.

PARKHURST ON HOME INCIDENT

Says It Was Unwise for Dr. Tippet to Draw No Occasion for Controversy.

Boston, April 5.—The Rev. Dr. Charles H. Parkhurst of New York in regard to recent incidents in Rome to-day said:
"I do not care to make any statement or enter into the controversy. The Methodists have talked too much anyway. For Mr.
Tippet to draw over the incident, if he did, Scholarship in school work. Prof. Rose received them at the Forum, where Col.
Roosevelt said:
"No man can stand here without feeling that he is in the center of the civilization from which he springs."

A hasty look at the Colosseum followed, after which the party ascended the Cap-itoline Hill, from the summit of which Col.
Roosevelt looked at the panorama of Rome.

"There are the Vatican gardens," said one of Col. Roosevelt's companions.
"I turn my eyes away and shudder," replied the Colonel.

During the trip an American lady lifted a small boy to the window of the car.
Col. Roosevelt patted the boy on the head and chatted a while. After a little shopping the Colonel returned to his hotel and attacked his correspondence. Innumerable invitations reach him daily which he finds it impossible to even answer, let alone accept.

To-day for the first time the general public of Rome seemed to realize that they had a great man among them. A crowd of a couple of hundred gathered at the hotel entrance and watched his departure on the drive this afternoon.

To-night Col. Roosevelt dined at the British Embassy.

BERLIN, April 5.—A telegram was received from Col. Roosevelt to-day in which he stated that he accepted the Kaiser's invitation to stay at the royal palace for four days as the personal guest of the Emperor.

IRELAND ATTACKS TIPPET.

Praises Roosevelt's Refusal to Hold Reception.

St. Paul, April 5.—Archbishop Ireland, speaking of the reception of ex-President Roosevelt of the reception to the American colony in Rome to-day said:
"That Mr. Roosevelt has called off the proposed reception to the American colony as a result of the anti-Vatican statement issued yesterday by the Rev. Mr. Tippet, the Methodist leader in Rome, is no surprise to me. I know Mr. Roosevelt too well to have believed he would play into the hands of Mr. Tippet in an attack upon the Vatican."

Mr. Tippet is a cunning schemer, ready at any moment to create capital for Methodism by parading it as an American institution. This time he failed. He has run up against Mr. Roosevelt. No doubt at reception Mr. Tippet would have put himself forward as the leader, the spokesman, another Burchard, who if I mistake not was a Methodist.

Mr. Tippet's well known forwardness and intriguing explain to a no small degree Cardinal Merry del Val's fears and caution.
Of course I am thankful to Mr. Roosevelt for his high minded fairness and his quick apprehension of the situation into which he was to be brought, but I have said, his action is no surprise to me. That's the man he is.

I give an instance of the warfare carried on by the Methodists in Rome against the Catholic Church.
Few Americans know what the Assno is and purports to be. It is the flimsiest of publications. Its articles teem with obscenity. Decent people turn quickly away when at some street corner kiosk their eyes light upon its lurid illustrations of course with the Assno a frequent theme for pen and pencil is the Catholic Church, its dogmas and precepts, which it misrepresents and ridicules, its priests and prelates, its monks and nuns, its sacred places, its Pontiff, for whom it finds no epithet sufficiently vile.

METHODISTS STAND BY TIPPET.

New York East Conference Expresses Confidence in Pastor of Church at Rome.

MIDDLETOWN, Conn., April 5.—The New York East Methodist Conference to-day indorsed the Rev. B. M. Tippet, pastor of the American Methodist Church in Rome, whose recent public statement is regarded by ex-President Roosevelt as extremely offensive. The resolution reads:
"Whereas the Rev. Dr. B. M. Tippet, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church at Rome, was until recently a member of this body, he is therefore Resolved, That we, the members of the New York East Conference heartily congratulate Brother Tippet on his appointment, expressing our entire confidence in his ability as a wise, judicious and broad-minded administrator, a fervent and fearless preacher of the gospel, and we rejoice in the past and present success of his work now under his care and assure him of our earnest desire and constant prayer for continued success."

Not to See Roosevelt Directly, but to Appear at the Hague.

WASHINGTON, April 5.—Senator Root is not going to Europe to see Col. Roosevelt in response to any summons. A suggestion was made some time ago that such a trip be made, but the Senator promptly declined to consider such a suggestion. The Senator will go abroad about June 1 if the conditions of legislation in the Senate are such as to make it possible for him to go. He will go to appear before the Hague tribunal. If Col. Roosevelt is still abroad they may meet. But it will be casual.

Senator Root is confined to his home with a severe sore throat. At the conclusion of his speech on the railway bill his voice was very much affected, and since the affliction has grown worse, so that he is now unable to speak except in a whisper and speech is attended with pain. His physician has recommended that he remain in his room for at least a week.

There is no positive information that the Senator has been asked by Col. Roosevelt to go to Europe for a conference.
Persons near enough to the Senator to have knowledge of such a thing have not, so far as we are aware of. But it is con-son born to his only daughter, who's a British Admiral's helpful wife.

Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN.
LONDON, April 5.—A son was born today to the wife of Admiral Beatty, formerly Ethel Field, only daughter of the late Chicago merchant Marshall Field.
Mrs. Beatty before her divorce was the wife of Arthur Tree, son of Lambert Tree, the former American Minister to Russia.

The London gossip has been trying to figure for some time how much Mrs.
Beatty has had to do with the remarkable promotion of her husband. Lord Nelson, son of the late Admiral, was 39 years old before he became a Rear Admiral, but Beatty was a Rear Admiral at 38. Beatty has a fine record in the navy and he was a first prize favorite at court, and the talkers figured it out that this led to his promotion. Mrs. Beatty was supposed to have inherited $20,000,000 from her share of the estate of her father, Arthur Tree, her first husband, who lived with her in England for some time, got a divorce on the ground of desertion, although he and his wife met every day in the huts in Warwickshire. There was one child, a boy, and the court awarded his custody to the father. The divorce was the wonder of the day in the hunting set of Warwick.

Havana Money Dispute Settled.

Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN.
HAVANA, April 5.—The disagreement between the Government and the sewer-ing and paving contractors has been settled by the special commission appointed by President Gomez. It reports that a compromise has been effected, both sides making concessions.

TALK OF IMPEACHING FORT

HIS BREAK WITH THE SENATE REACHES AN ACUTE STAGE.

New Jersey Governor's Speech to Real Estate Men in New York Brings Matters to a Crisis—Impeachment Plan Gives Way to Less Drastic Process.

TRENTON, April 5.—With every member pledged to secrecy, the Senate to-day spent two hours in executive session seeking to devise some effective retaliation upon Gov. Fort for the remarks he made at the Hotel Astor last Saturday night when addressing the members of the New York-New Jersey Real Estate Exchange.

The outcome of the Senate's deliberations was the appointment of a committee, consisting of Senators Bradley of Camden, Prince of Passaic, Hinch of Cumberland, and Fielder of Hudson, to draft resolutions and prepare a formal communication to the Governor protesting against the reflection against the New Jersey Legislature contained in his New York speech.

The break between the Governor and the Senate was severely a surprise. It has in fact been threatening to develop since almost the beginning of Gov. Fort's term. The determination to let a committee handle the subject by giving formal expression to the views of the Senate was in reality a tame substitute for more drastic action which had been considered at the executive session. Some of the Senators even wished to go so far as to institute impeachment proceedings against the Governor upon the ground that he has refused to perform his official duties by his failure to appoint members of the county boards of taxation as required by law.

The Senate began its deliberations in a midnight conference held last night which were considered the address made by the Governor in New York and also the published charges against Senator Harry V. Osborne of Essex, which were attributed by him to former United States Senator James Smith, Jr. The Osborne charges related to his position upon a trolley bill which was taken up and defeated in the Senate to-day. At the night conference the Senators decided to take no further action upon the Osborne matter for the present, but to devote themselves to calling down the Governor.

One of the things the Senators did was to consent to the withdrawal of the nomination of Charles J. Record of Jersey City as a member of the commission to revise and codify the statutes of the State. Mr.
Record's nomination was sent in by the Governor about two months ago and has since been held up by the Senate. Mr.
Record was informed that confirmation
securing the withdrawal of his nomination.

The night conference adjourned without taking definite action, but before reconvening to-day several Senators called on the Governor, asking whether he had been correctly reported in his New York address and intimating that if not a statement to that effect would be accepted by the Senate. The Governor replied that
had mentioned no names and that he had nothing to retract. He stated that the Governor added later in the day to a number of newspaper men that he was glad he had made the speech and proposed to follow it up with a number of others even more radical in character than his views upon legislative matters.

When it was reported to the Senate that the Governor was maintaining a defiant attitude some of the Senators suggested making a formal demand upon him for a retraction or calling upon him to prove his assertions. The majority realizing that this was entirely beyond the power of the Senate, advised against such a course, and it was then that the possibility of impeachment was suggested. This too was frowned down upon the ground that the facts would not justify such extreme measures and that it would be unseasonable public policy to begin the beginning of his term the Governor has preached against the county boards of taxation and has sought the repeal of the law passed during the term of Gov. Stokes creating them. Being unsuccessful in securing the repeal of the law the Governor at first declared that he would make no attempt to amend the law thereby permit the county boards to become obsolete. He reconsidered this determination and made an interim appointment. The year since then he has gone on and with final adjournment scheduled for to-morrow the Governor still refuses to name the county tax boards.

It was the plan of some of the Senators to prolong the session until the Governor had sent in the nominations and in the event of his failure to do so to call upon the House to impeach him. If the Senate had been left entirely alone it is possible that some such plan might have been carried out, but as soon as the State leaders were informed of the situation they brought their influence to bear to prevent such action. After various Senators had denounced the Governor in strong language the majority compromise was effected by the appointment of the committee.

Gov. Fort left the State House about 4 o'clock in the afternoon and was given out that he had returned to his home in Newark, but the belief was prevailing to-night that he was still in Trenton and in close touch with the situation, although in seclusion. At any rate when the Senate adjourned at a o'clock he was not within reach of the columns.

During the evening session Senator Wilson called for a vote upon the question of passing a bill upon the Governor's veto. Upon the question he was voted to sustain the veto, the vote standing 12 to 6. No bill has been passed in New Jersey over a Governor's veto within the last fifteen years.

Two Men Killed Under Falling Wall.

Two men removing junk from a cellar of a fire wrecked building at 230 and 232 Market street, Newark, were killed yesterday afternoon when a partition wall fell on them. One of the men was Louis Zamelsky, 40 years old, of 130 Somerset street. The other has not been identified.
The wall was in process of demolition by a gang of men who did not know that the junkmen were on the premises.
The bodies were recovered.

Fruit Is Good
For Breakfast

—And good for you.
Keiller's Marmalade
is better. Incidentally, it's less expensive,
too. Since 1797, it's been England's standard breakfast relish.

LANSDEN
ELECTRIC WAGONS

FOR SIX YEARS Lansden Electric Wagons, equipped with the Edison Storage Battery, have been quietly working wonders in the delivery service of Greater New York. Unadvertised during this period, save by actual demonstrations of business routine, every car that could be turned out by the factory has been sold.

NOW THAT WE CAN furnish the perfected Edison Battery and our facilities for manufacturing have been increased, making a larger output possible, we believe it is time to tell our story to the public—to tell why some of the greatest establishments in the Metropolis, to whom efficiency, economy and durability mean a yearly saving of thousands, have selected the Lansden with the Edison Battery over all other makes.

The story will begin in our next announcement.

SIT DOWN AND FESS, SAID SHE.
It's a Long Story, Said He—Eleven Co-respondents Named.

The suit of Edna Valentine Hein, daughter of Washington Valentine, the importer, for a divorce from Isa Willard Hein, also an importer and Vice-Consul of Honduras here, went to trial before Supreme Court Justice Bischoff and a jury yesterday. Mrs. Hein names six correspondents, and Hein has a counter suit in which he names five, including Kid McCoys.

The Heins were married on September 24, 1902, and lived together at the Hotel Ansonia until November 20, 1907. They have one child, Jacqueline. Mrs. Hein declares that her husband confessed to her offenses with the women she names.
Fernando Cordova, a detective, testified that on May 17, 1907, he followed Hein and a woman from Jersey City to Washington and to the Arlington Hotel. The register of the Arlington Hotel showed that I.
Willard Hein and Mrs. B. M. Higgins were registered there, but had separate rooms. Mrs. B. M. Higgins has filed an answer denying any misconduct.

Dr. Baker Smith told of seeing Hein and Mrs. Higgins drinking at the Hotel Belle-clair with another couple, and later going to a house near by at 2 o'clock in the morning.

Julius J. Valentine, a cousin of the plaintiff, said that he and Mrs. Hein met at the Arlington Hotel. He said that he was a member of the commission to revise
and codify the statutes of the State. Mr.
since been held up by the Senate. Mr.
Record was informed that confirmation
tion.

taking definite action, but before recon-
on the Governor, asking whether he had been correctly reported in his New York
address and intimating that if not a statement to that effect would be accepted by
his views upon legislative matters.
